5 Greece Windmill

A Greek-style windmill which is perfect for the location of Shodoshima, the birthplace of olive horticulture in Japan and is reminiscent of the Aegean Sea. This is a popular spot for ceremonial photographs. Windmills have been used as millhouses since the early 19th century and are found all over in Greece and around the Aegean Sea.

6 Olive Road

When walking down the Olive Hill, the evergreen leaves shake in the wind and the silver color on the back of the leaves glitters in the sunlight.
The gentle ocean of the Seto Inland Sea and blue sky can be seen between the trees.

7 Shodoshima Olive Garden

This garden cultivates about 2,000 olives and is the first garden in Japan to cultivate olives. The shop sells various olive products such as cosmetics and edible oil using olives harvested and processed in the park, and the low price in line with the direct sales is attractive.

- Business hours 8:30~17:00
- 7 days a week

8 Original Olive Tree

The oldest original tree in a private olive garden in Japan. The location of Olive Hill is excellent. You can see the Tanoura Peninsula and the Mito peninsula beyond the Uchinomi Bay from the hill where the original olive tree continues to thrive.

9 Isamu Noguchi's Play Equipment

Isamu Noguchi created a playground sculpture to bring art into daily life. This installation consists with three kinds of sculptures. When you play here, you can enjoy the dialogue with the open world, the unique world which children find as well as the dialogue with the sky, the sea, the sun, the moon, stars and the universe. Please enjoy both mentally and physically.

10 ARTETRA

The famous AKARI series is another art element of Isamu Noguchi. The soft light produced by the Japanese lighting equipment harmonizes with furniture designed by Isamu Noguchi in this space. The world view of Isamu Noguchi, an artist who loved nature, is skillfully expressed here.

11 Tower of Civilization Oratorio

In 1586, 1,400 islanders were baptized into Christianity. Japanese history records that Christian Daimyo Yukinaga Konishi built a 15-meter high crucifix and wished for happiness. This cross was built in commemoration of 400 year anniversary of the introduction of Christianity into Japan. The building on the right is an oratorio (prayer house).

12 Monument of the Birthplace of Olive

Olives were introduced to Shodoshima in 1908 (Meiji 41), and cultivation of olives succeeded due to the continuous efforts of their predecessors. Shodoshima became the birthplace of olives in our country.
This monument was built by Kagawa prefecture in 1987 (Showa 62).
